Editorial

This is the time of the year when the Assam Olympic Association is going through a hectic time not because of sporting activities, but because of an opportunity that has come for the first time to this part of the country. In a never before gesture towards the north eastern part of the country, the Indian Olympic Association has decided to host its Elective Annual General Meeting in Guwahati under the auspices of the Assam Olympic Association. And, the Assam Olympic Association, under able leadership of Honourable Union Minister and President of Assam Olympic Association Shri Sarbananda Sonowal and Sports Authority of Assam Vice President and Secretary of Assam Olympic Association Shri Lakhya Konwar, has been leaving no stone unturned to ensure that the meeting becomes one of the best organised event in the annals of Indian Olympic Association's history.

It is invariably an opportunity for the sports organisers of Assam as well as north eastern India not only to meet and greet the National Sports Federations' office bearers, but also to know them as well as the state of affairs of different sports in India. Almost all the who's who of sports in Indian sports organisations are expected to attend the AGM. Assam has been on a mission over the past few years to become the Sports Capital of the Country. This AGM is also going to be an opportunity for Assam to showcase its infrastructure and organisational capabilities before the National Sports Federations so that they could bid for international sports events to be organised in Assam in the near future.

Hospitality is what Assam is known for across the country. And, the Assam Olympic Association is making all efforts and arrangements to live up once again to the State's reputation. Elaborate arrangements are being made for the comfortable accommodation and transportation of the esteemed visiting delegates apart from creating opportunities for them to know Assam from a closer quarter.

Not only is the Assam Olympic Association busy only with the Indian Olympic Association's Elective AGM, but also with its regular events. The Assam Olympic Associations has over the past few months successfully resolved disputes and unified different factions of karate organisers and is also enforcing its constitutional provisions as regards default by some of its affiliated units including State Sports Associations and District Sports Associations. Further, the Assam Olympic Association has taken the initiative to host different sports events, such as the state level basketball championship in Guwahati on behalf of the state basketball association so that the players are not deprived of their due opportunity.
