The sports arena in Assam too has seen an unwarranted layoff for exactly two years like other parts of the world due to the Covid-19 pandemic that has left many a talents deprived and frustrated. Many have been deprived of an opportunity to showcase their talent at the prime of their form and age. Although some got the opportunity, they could not perform to their full potential due to the pandemic protocols which often robbed them of their valuable practice sessions and kept them confined indoors over the past two years. Despite all odds stacked against them, athletes such as Lovlina Borgohain deserve the kudos for reaping laurels for the country in the Tokyo Olympics.

Of late, the hiatus seem to be over though. Sports arena have been opened for not only practice, but also for competitions. The resumption of sporting activities has witnessed no less than the resurgence of 'Dhing Express' Hima Das who bagged the gold in the recent 25th National Federation Cup Senior Athletics Championships. Another good thing about Assam's sports is the surge of athlete Amlan Borgohain who shattered a four-year-old national record in men's 200 m dash in the Federation Cup at Calicut University Stadium.

Similarly, boxer Bhagyabati Kachari's recent bronze winning feat at the Thailand Open International Boxing Tournament 2022 in Phuket in April is another achievement to cherish as far as Assam's sports is concerned. Chanma Brahma and Chiranjit Boro have also shined in the international arena having bagged medals in the Moscow Star Wushu Championship in February. Moreover, taekwondo players Mahasweta Kashyap and Maitri Sarma are representing the country in the World Taekwondo Poomsae Championship in DPR Korea from April 18.

Taking advantage of the pandemic subsiding over the past couple of months, the sports organizations in Assam, including the Assam Olympic Association, have taken the initiative to provide the much needed platforms for the young talents to prove their prowess. The Assam Athletics Association, the Assam Hockey Association and few others have organized their state championships. The Lawn Bowling Association Assam has organized one of its state ranking tournament as well as a state level invitation tournament.

The Guwahati Sports Association also took the opportunity to host its annual flagship event Bharat Ratna Lokapriya Bordoloi Trophy Tournament in Guwahati. Although it witnessed some tougher competition compared to those during the last half a decade and also saw some bigger spectator turnout, it once again proved that the Guwahati crowd wants star players and big names among clubs to feature on the greens for pack house turnouts like those of Indian Super League and the international fixtures played at Indira Gandhi Stadium in the city.

A good thing about the Bordoloi Trophy Tournament was that it was hosted in both the historic grounds of Guwahati – Judges Field and Nehru Stadium. Thanks to the Assam Olympic Association, Assam Football Association and Assam Cricket Association, who have joined hands to reinstate the multi-purpose character of the Nehru Stadium right ahead of the Bordoloi Trophy. The stadium was rendered unplayable for any sport for more than half a decade in the name of renovation that remained incomplete since 2016.

Another good news about Assam's sportspersons is the conquest of the Mumbai coast by former international record holder long distance swimmer Elvis Ali Hazarika. He has successfully swum along the coastline of Mumbai in the turbulent Arabian Sea which speaks volumes about his prowess ahead of his quest to swim across the North Channel in August 2022.

The Assam Olympic Association, being the parent organization of all sports in the state, has not been sighing behind in encouraging the athletes for their feats. The apex organization of the state has been bestowing the honours on the deserving players from time to time. Besides, it has been extending aids to those who need to prepare themselves for different sporting extravaganzas. The Assam Olympic Association, under the leadership of Shri Sarbananda Sonowal and Shri Lakhya Konwar, will continue to be a driving force behind every sportsperson of the state.
